

How to get from the International Airport to the Bus Station in Cordoba using public transportation?

If you are willing to use the public transportation to get to Villa Carlos Paz from the International Airport of Cordoba, you must, first, get to the Bus Station, located in the city center of Cordoba. The central Bus Station has a new building, communicated with the old building through a tunnel. There are several options:

Buses

Top pay your bus ticket, you need, first, to have the Red Bus card and you need to ensure that you have enough credit to pay for your ticket. In Cordoba, public buses do not accept cash. The Red Bus card has a cost of $60 (approximately U$S 2) and it can be bought in the magazine Open 25, located in the first floor of the airport.

- Aerobus ($68.17 (approximately U$S 2.25) daytime fee, $ 78.39 (approximately U$S 2.6) night fee): is the best option to get to the Bus Station from the Airport. The route begins in a platform located outside of the front doors of the Airport and it finishes in new building of the Bus Station in the city center. It departs every 35 minutes, starting at 5:20 a.m.. The night bus departs every 1 hour, starting at 9:18 p.m. The estimated time of the travel is 1:30 hours. You will find more information in the following links:
<http://ersaurbano.com/recorridos/cordoba/aerobus/>
<http://ersaurbano.com/wp-content/uploads/2016/09/HORARIOS-AEROBUS-1.pdf>
- Bus line Nº 25 – ERSA ($17.22 (approximately U$S 0.6)): regular public transportation buses. It departs from the platform located outside of the front doors of the Airport. These buses do not accept big luggage! The estimated time of the travel is 1:45 hours but it can be less depending on the traffic. It departs every 30 minutes, starting at 5:00 a.m..

Taxis

Taxicabs can be found in front of the main door of the airport. It is advisable to consult the estimated price before picking up the service, to avoid unpleasant surprises. The travel time is 45 minutes and the price should be around $400 (approximately U$S 13.50) to get to the Bus Station.

Car Rentals

Inside the airport building there are several car rental companies, such as Hertz, Avis or Sixt.

How to get to Villa Carlos Paz from Cordoba Bus Station?

Buses

From the Bus Station in Cordoba city center, there are several buses to get to the Bus Station of Villa Carlos Paz. The most known companies are Fonobus, ERSA and Sarmiento. They depart every 10-15 minutes and the price is $62 (approximately U$S 2). The tickets can be bought inside the Bus Station, in the ticket office of each company or paying cash directly to the bus driver.

How to get to EQUIFASE from Villa Carlos Paz Bus Station?

Once in Villa Carlos Paz Bus Station, you can pick up a taxi or a bus to get to the Conference Hotel:

Buses

The B1 line starting at 5:30 a.m. and has a frequency of 30 minutes and the bus stop is in the intersection of Av. San Martín and Liniers, as it can be seen in the map. Here, again, you must have the official bus card from Villa Carlos Paz, that can be bought directly to the bus driver. The card has a cost of $100 (approximately U$S 3.2) and it already has enough credit to pay for your ticket to the Hotel, located in 600 Gobernador Alvarez Street.

Taxi

From Villa Carlos Paz Bus Station, you can pick up a taxi to get to the Hotel. The travel time is around 10 minutes.

